

ATTACHMENT F HISTORIC PROPERTY ADDENDUM

Congratulations on accepting a Historic Residence for your home. Resident enjoyment of the Premises is important to the Landlord. Through pro-active communication and cooperation, the historic fabric of the Residence can be protected for future occupants.

The Landlord will provide information to the Resident on the unique nature and requirements of the Premises. The information includes a flyer on landscape maintenance and any restrictions on Resident-performed changes to or maintenance of the Premises, both interior and exterior. The Navy Family Housing office can also provide information to the Resident about the historic nature of the Premises.

Resident acknowledges that, concerning periodic maintenance, repairs or renovations to the Premises, it may be necessary to involve the state's historic preservation office as well as the property manager. Such involvement may include inspections of proposed work areas prior to, during and after the work has been completed. Access requirements to the Premises may exceed those experienced by Residents of non-historic properties.

Resident acknowledges receipt of information concerning the Premises, accepts the requirements of occupying a Historic Residence.
